SOCIETYImpersonator.

Mr. Gilbert Atlee Eldridge, Impersonator, will be here on Wednesday, March 31, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church. Mr. Eldridge comes highly recommended, and presents a widely varied, artistic and popular repertoire of costumed interpretations of a high order, changing quickly from humorous to pathetic and from dramatic to sentimental representations.

Inheritance.

No more absurd statement ever came from the lips of man than the one which declares "there is no inheritance." You had might as well say that no man ever left a son a fortune as to say that no man ever transmitted his virtues and vices to his children. But when a son inherits a fortune it is not that fact, but the use he makes of it, which counts to his credit or discredit.

If your father left you a gambling house or a dive, and you continue to draw revenue from them, you are slaying your own soul and helping to slay others.

If you turn them into model tenement houses or establish kindergartens and baths or other moral institutions in their places, you are building your own character.

If you inherit a violent temper and indolence from your parents and make that an excuse for your disagreeableness and depravity, you are merely allowing the gambling den and dive to cumber the ground of your mind domain.

If you control those tendencies with your God-given will you can clear out the unwholesome territory and make it a garden spot of beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kissenger entertained the members of the Fiscal Court in a royal manner at the County Farm, Thursday.

A substantial dinner of turkey, ham, chicken, oysters, salmon croquettes, chicken salad, salmon salad, potato salad, cranberries, prunes, celery, pickles, deviled eggs, jellies, baked apples, baked peaches, corn, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, macaroni, muffins and biscuits, milk, coffee, custard, banana cream and eight varieties of cake, was served. A huge bowl of frappe was kept to serve during the day.

The gentlemen were highly pleased with their reception, the condition of the farm, and the care of the inmates.

Those present were: Messrs. Abe Renick, Scott Renick, Eli Dooley, Robert True, John Ramsey, Felix Goodpaster, J. C. Richards, Ben Willis, John Ballard, Albert Tanner, Woodson McCord, Herbert Scrivener, Starling B. Tracy, J. T. Stokely, Will Franklin, M. D. Royse, Charles Sullivan, James Boone, George Hart, J. M. Aldridge, Walter Ecton and D. S. Haggard.
